Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Abbott of Charlotte are at their Flat Rock home for a few days. They go North from here to be present at the graduation of their daughter, Miss Margaret. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott will spend the greater part of the Summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boyd, with Miss Nettie LeGrand, returned Tuesday from Spartanburg, where they witnessed the graduation from Converse College of Miss May Boyd. There were 50 graduates, 12 of whom were from North Carolina. Miss Boyd is among the list of distinguished students, in history, ethics and psychology.

Pure Milk.

The Asheville Citizen says that more than half of the infant mortality in the large cities during the heated term is due to impure milk. It adds: "But impure milk is not only a menace to the child life of our country; it threatens the adult at every turn."

In Chicago, a government expert, after visiting the dairies furnishing Chicago with milk, recommended that about one-half the dairies be put out of business.

Greenville, Anderson and Spartanburg have recently "taken thoroughly enlightened action for the protection of consumers of milk."

It might be well for Hendersonville authorities to pay some attention to this important matter, also.

HENDERSONVILLE'S NEW DAILY PAPER.

"The Daily Herald," Hendersonville's new daily paper, will make its appearance sometime during this month.

The Mergenthaler Typesetting Machine has been shipped from the New York factory. Arrangements for a suitable special news service have been made and many other details incident to the big enterprise are now being closed up.

The Daily Herald will be published by The French Broad Hustler Company, Inc., and will in no wise conflict with The Hustler, which will be published as heretofore and will be made absolutely the BEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN NORTH CAROLINA. Watch it!

Columbia Park Sales.

There are many inquiries for property in Columbia Park. Among the recent sales are:

To S. D. Collins, of Spartanburg, two houses, $9,500. Mr. Collins will spend the season each year at Columbia Park.

To R. L. Metcalf, of Spartanburg, cottage, consideration $1750. Mr. Metcalf and family will occupy their new home this season.

Opens Brevard Store.

Mr. G. M. Glazener has leased for five years the concrete building in Brevard owned by P. S. King and will open a branch store there as soon as certain alterations, including a plate glass front, are made.

Mr. Glazener is rapidly becoming one of the best known merchants in the State of North Carolina. He will carry the same high grade stock of goods and adopt the same liberal and progressive business methods in Brevard which have made him so many friends in Henderson County.

Judge Blythe, Judge Ewart and Hon. J. S. Rhodes are attending the 14th Judicial District republican convention at Marlon.

A Fifty-dollar Drive.

Mr. R. A. Montgomery, Southern representative of the John B. Stetson Hat Company, spent Sunday in town. With Mr. G. M. Glazener, one of Mr. Montgomery's largest customers in the South, he drove to many of the celebrated scenic points near town, including Jump-Off and Laurel Park, where he met Mr. W. A. Smith. Mr. Montgomery offered to trade with Mr. Smith for a part of his beautiful Park, concerning which he was extremely enthusiastic, but the offer was laughingly declined. Mr. Montgomery, a widely traveled man, said:

"I think Hendersonville the most beautiful town I have ever seen. The country around it is one vast picture. The great cloud-capped mountains, covered to their very summits with magnificent vegetation, the many streams and rivers like bands of molten silver winding in and out, the cloudless and bluest of skies—why, man, Switzerland with its much advertised Alpine scenery is not to be compared with this country!"

"I am coming back, Glazener, and am going to stay longer, next time!"

SUPREME COURT CLEARS UP SIDEWALK MUDDLE.

"May we pay for grading the sidewalks out of the funds derived from the bond sale?"

YES!

"May we pay for grading the streets, as distinguished from the sidewalks, out of said funds derived from said bond sale?"

YES!

"May we pay the engineers out of the funds derived from said bond sale for the establishment of the grades of the sidewalks and said streets?"

YES!

The Supreme Court has just handed down its decision in the sidewalk matter, in which Walker Smith was plaintiff and the town defendant. The commissioners win on every point.

The decision approves the actions of the commissioners and enables them to continue in manner begun.

Mr. Michael Schenck, town attorney, represented the commissioners, and Mr. Charles French Toms represented Walker Smith, the plaintiff.

To quote from the decision:

"It would be unwise and unsightly to have the sidewalks graded to an established grade and then paved with cement, and to leave the roadways of the streets in their natural condition and with their natural configuration undisturbed. It is left to the judgment of the Commissioners to determine how much grading any particular street shall receive. It has been repeatedly held by this Court that such matters are legislative and rest exclusively in the discretion of the governing authorities of the municipalities and its decisions cannot be interfered with or controlled by the courts."

Coming To Hendersonville.

(From New Orleans Times-Democrat)

A number of Orleanians will leave again this season for the North Carolina mountains. Many of the fashionables will go to Lake Kanuga, where a large number of prominent families from throughout the South are members of the Kanuga Country Club. This exclusive organization has a beautiful and spacious club house or hotel and many cottages for the members. The latter include several from here, many of whom will leave with their families to occupy cottages. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bush, Miss Marjorie Bobb and other members of the family will leave for there early in July. Judge and Mrs. Rufus E. Foster will also leave in July, and others to occupy cottages will be Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Orme, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guerard, Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee and others. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer N. Wisdom, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sidney White, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. White and others may also be among the cottagers this season. The club will be open from July 1 until October.

The summer homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hayne and Mr. Hugh de Lacey Vincent are a few miles away from Kanuga at Flat Rock, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Westfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Westfield, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Elliott are other Orleanians who have summer homes in North Carolina.

ONE HUNDRED GUESTS AT SEAGLE-SMITH WEDDING

In the presence of about one hundred relatives and friends Miss Nellie Earle Seagle was married on Wednesday afternoon, June 1, to Mr. Lee Roy Smith. The ceremony took place on the lawn in front of the bride's home in East Hendersonville and was performed by her eldest brother, the Rev. Dr. Nathan A. Seagle, Rector of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, New York City.

The bride was given in marriage, in behalf of her mother, by the Rev. William Rice of Asheville. She was gowned in white net, hand embroidered and elaborately trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. Her long tulle veil was held in place with a wreath of orange. She carried a large bouquet of daisies.

The bride's only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nathan A. Seagle, of New York City, who wore a gown of flowered silk with a pale blue Empire sash and trimmed with princess lace and applique roses. She carried a large basket of daisies which she threw in the path of the bride and groom after the ceremony, indicating thereby that their pathway in life should be strewn with flowers of happiness.

The bridegroom, Mr. Smith, is one of the most prosperous farmers in the county. He is a resident of Hillgirt where the happy couple will make their home. He was a widower and an old Confederate soldier. His best man at Wednesday's ceremony was Dr. Richard L. Seagle who also came from New York City to attend his sister's marriage.

The gifts were costly and numerous. They included a check for one hundred dollars from Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Seagle, a check from Dr. Richard Seagle, a check from Dr. Charles T. Seagle and a check from Rev. John and Mrs. Seagle, a solid silver milk pitcher and tray from the bride's mother, a solid silver sugar bowl and many other articles for personal and ornamental use.

Charming as was the bride in her wedding gown she was equally so in her going away dress, which was a heliotrope colored liberty satin. Her hat was of fine black braid in turban style.

Noterman Place Sold.

The Noterman place has been sold to Mr. R. H. Vernon, of Charlotte, a Southern Railway official. The price paid was $15,000. Mr. Vernon will open up streets through the six acres comprising this desirable property and put building lots on the market. With his family he will reside in his newly acquired home.

THE world is looking for the man who can do something, not for the man who can "explain" why he didn't do it!

A Solid Car Soda.

The Calhoun-Wilkins Co., wholesale grocers, have on the road a solid car of the celebrated "Eagle Thistle" brand of soda, shipped by the Mathieson Alkalali Works of Saltville, Va. This soda, put up in 16 ounce packages, is gaining public favor so rapidly all over the country that the manufacturers now find it necessary to ship in solid car lots of 500 cases.

THE DAILY HERALD'S NEW AND WONDERFUL TYPESETTING MACHINE

The Mergenthaler Linotype machine, recently ordered by the French Broad Hustler Company, is really one of the most marvelous products of the brains of man.

It was invented, not so very many years ago, by Mergenthaler, a German machinist, and the first machine made represented an amount of patient labor, wonderful skill, and heavy expenditure of money not equaled by any other labor saving device on the market.

There are three thousand and three hundred different and distinct parts to the machine. It does the work of seven skilled workmen and does it better. It is fascinating to watch the wonderful apparatus at work, and if, as some people believe, machines have souls, surely a Mergenthaler has one.

This will be, of course, the first typesetting machine ever owned in Hendersonville and will be the first standard machine ever brought here. At the Press convention, some two years ago, there was a Junior on exhibition at the Gates Hotel, but a Standard machine is entirely different.

The Mergenthaler purchased by The Hustler Company is the latest improved Standard No. 5 two magazine machine. It is new and has been shipped direct from the factory. It should be here about June 10th.

When assembled and in operation a cordial invitation will be extended to all interested to come in and inspect it and see it actually at work. It will be well worth while, for while this age of machinery has produced many wonderful devices not one is more wonderful than a Mergenthaler Linotype.

Mr. Vance Norwood, of Statesville, who recently became associated with The Hustler, will be the operator-machinist in charge of the machine.

Water Cut Off.

City water will be cut off Friday evening between 2 and 5 o'clock, to clean reservoir.

J. W. McIntyre,
Chairman.

Mr. W. E. Perry Offers Farm and Cattle For Sale

Mr. W. E. Perry, one of the best known breeders of thoroughbred Jersey cattle in the South, has decided to leave Henderson county this Fall, and offers his superb farm and Jersey thoroughbred and grades for sale.

Mr. Perry will visit different sections of the country before deciding definitely upon a location for his future home, but is already somewhat favorably impressed with Eastern Tennessee where there are many thoroughbred Jerseys raised.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry have resided here for ten years past, and their place, "Hidaway Farm," is in a remarkably high state of cultivation. He has already sold and shipped to South Carolina five of his thoroughbreds and offers the rest, with the grades and two thoroughbred Jersey sows at private sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry leave this country, which they believe to be the most beautiful to be found anywhere, with keen regret, but believe also that some other section will afford Mr. Perry a wider field of operations.

J. P. RICKMAN DIED TUESDAY, AT MIDNIGHT

Mr. J. P. Rickman died at his home in Greenville, S. C., on Tuesday, at midnight. The funeral services will be held at the late residence on Thursday. Interment will be in Greenville. Death was due to Bright's disease.

While Mr. Rickman's serious condition has been known for several months past, still the news of his death came as a distinct shock to the community. It is extremely doubtful if any man here ever had more friends and fewer enemies than "Jim" Rickman. A self-made man in every sense of the word, his acts of charity, of kindness, of helpfulness have been without number, and the world is the poorer now that he has gone.

J. P. Rickman was about 54 years old when the summons came. He was born at Mills River, came to Hendersonville when only a lad, and by sheer force of character, hard work and ability made his way to the very forefront of the commercial life of the State.

Mr. Rickman came to Hendersonville in 1883 and worked for the Southern Railway. He soon entered the mercantile business with Dr. Fletcher under the firm name of Fletcher & Rickman, eventually buying out Dr. Fletcher's interest. In 1901 he organized the Bank of Hendersonville and sold his mercantile business to Brooks & Williams. He was twice mayor of Hendersonville. Some two years ago he removed to Greenville where he organized the Fourth National Bank, of which he was president. In both this town and Greenville his name has ever stood for the strictest business integrity.

In 1895 he was married to Miss Val Justus, a daughter of Mr. M. T. Justus. Five living children, Bessie, Marie, Floried, Albert and James P. Jr. survive him.

Mrs. Brittain of Mills River, Mrs. John Smathers of Hendersonville, Mrs. Wexler Smathers of Asheville and Mr. Thos. Rickman of Asheville mourn the loss of a beloved brother.

In every particular J. P. Rickman was a typical American citizen. Self-made, of boundless integrity, a faithful husband, a kind father, a loyal friend, he was a man without reproach and a man whose memory will long remain green in the hearts of the many who knew and loved him well.

For Schenck.

G. B. Hill, of Edneyville, speaking recently of the race for solicitor, said:

"You can quote me as saying that Edneyville will vote solid for 'Mike' Schenck. We don't hear of any one else, hardly, out that way."

BLOOMER GIRLS VS. HENDERSONVILLE

There will be a base ball game at Laurel Park, Thursday afternoon at 3:30, that will be different from most games.
